From Susan Rae Oldfield, Governor

The Board is very excited about having an actual meeting. I think this will be a good way to celebrate Compact Day. Our plan is to meet at my house on Nov. 7 at 11:30 a.m. We'll have a business meeting and catered lunch. Our speaker, Marcia Maloney, will give a presentation by Zoom. This also provides an opportunity for members and friends who can't attend to watch via Zoom. I promise to practice and have all of the kinks worked out before our meeting.

You will need to RSVP if you are coming to my house. Our version of the presentation will be on a movie screen. I will supply a road map to those who RSVP. There is a possibility we could do some car-pooling from Fresno, let me know if you would need a ride.

You will need to RSVP if you want to watch the presentation on zoom from your living room. I have to "invite" you to the meeting.

See below for more information regarding RSVP's, lunch and Zoom.

Enclosed, if you are receiving this via mail, or attached via email, is a new version of our By-Laws that our SJVC Board has approved. This was initiated by the State Counselor and Executive Board of the State Colony. Many colonies had very little framework for their societies. Luckily, we had done this a few years ago, and really just had to update and add a few by-laws we didn't have.

There will be discussion in the business meeting, but if we don't have enough people there to approve it, we will do an email vote at a later date. Revisions are shown in Red.

From Dianna Saario, Deputy Governor / Colony Membership Chair

We've been adding members as fast as we can. As the Colony Membership Chair of the San Joaquin Valley Colony and Assistant Historian, the question I hear often is: "When will I hear about my Mayflower application." Answer, "I don't know." It is exciting that the GSMD is slowly opening back up. Their verifiers are working very hard from home. I heard they are catching up. So cross your fingers that they will get to your application soon. Sjvcmfchair@gmail.com

More Presenter Information from Dianna Saario

Marcia Maloney, Honorary Governor of California, will provide our next presentation via Zoom from Orange County. Marcia was Co-Chair of the 2020 Mayflower Rose Bowl Parade Float. Her presentation will cover the "Children of the Mayflower."
